Feedback Analysis and Action Taken Report 2022-23

The feedbacks received from various stakeholders were collected and analysed at the council meeting and at the IQAC and the following decisions were taken:

Sl. No.	Feedback	Stakeholders	Plan of Action
1.	Improvement of results	Faculty, Students	a) As the teachers raised concern after the analysis of students' progression last year, the council directed departments to adopt blended learning by supplementing online extra classes whenever necessary. b) It was decided to arrange special classes for slow learners and more tests based on previous question papers.
2.	To organize more programmes at the department/college level	Faculty, Students	a) It was decided to resume activities such as quiz competitions and programmes like debates, discussions, to vitalize literary club, film club which was laid back after the pandemic. b) A meeting of all Club co-ordinators was proposed to schedule activities to avoid overlapping of programmes. c) It was suggested to give students a lead role to organise the activities to remove their lethargy from COVID 19.
3.	Slowly shifting to offline conferences, seminars, and workshops	Faculty	a) The council suggested it was high time to shift back to offline sessions from virtual ones. Hence it was suggested to slowly shift from webinars and to conduct offline conferences and seminars. b) It was suggested to hold department meetings to organize workshops at national as well as international levels.
