FINE ARTS, HINDI DAY AND NATIONAL READING DAY CELEBRATIONS

FINE ARTS

India's cultural heritage is a vibrant tapestry woven with threads of history, tradition and identity. India's rich cultural heritage is exhibited through the performance of classical art forms like Kathakali, Mohiniyattam, Bharathanatyam, Thiruvathira, Oppana, Margamkali, etc. and of Indian percussion and musical instruments like chenda, tabla, sarangi, sitar, etc. Also, folk art forms including folk songs and Theyyam are performed on special occasions of celebration. These art forms represent India's unity in diversity in terms of religion, region, caste and creed. Recognising its importance, various initiatives have taken at institution level to promote and safeguard this rich legacy. Through organising fine arts festivals and various cultural programmes at institution level and participation at university level competition in various events, the institution preserves and transmits the rich cultural heritage of India. Equal importance has been given to both classical traditions and folk traditions.

Photos of some of the events in which students are actively participating in classical dance, folk songs, and folk dance etc at various levels are given below.
